

The City of Owasso

Proclamation

WHEREAS, the City of Owasso recognizes that strong neighborhoods are the key to continued economic prosperity and is committed to helping maintain and renew neighborhoods throughout our community; and

WHEREAS, each year on the second Thursday in May, tens of thousands of Keller Williams Associates from across the United States and Canada participate in a wide array of community service projects, devoting time and energy to the task of energizing the neighborhoods in which they serve; and

WHEREAS, RED (Renew, Energize, and Donate) Day, is held in honor of Mo Anderson, Vice Chairman of the Board for Keller Williams Realty, in recognition of her guidance of the culture of Keller Williams Realty; and

WHEREAS, RED Day displays the extraordinary effect one company can have when individuals come together to work as a team for the greater good of a community through the simple act of recognizing a need and working to meet that need; and

WHEREAS, RED Day is the perfect example of the philosophy that urges us to "give where we live" by donating our time, energy, and skills to projects and individuals that need it the most; and

WHEREAS, the realtors at Owasso's Keller Williams will assist Owasso Community Resources, Standing in the Gap, and Mission Owasso through the organization of a food drive, aiming to collect 100,000 items.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, DOUG BONEBRAKE, by virtue of the authority vested in me as Mayor of the City of Owasso, do hereby proclaim Thursday, May 12, 2011 to be in the City of Owasso, and do further commend Keller Williams Realty and its employees for their dedication to the communities in which they operate.

RED

(Renew, Energize, & Donate)

IN WITNESS THEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the City of Owasso to be affixed this 3rd day of May, 2011.

Doug Bonebrake, Mayor
